

Faculty Course Evaluation Form
BADM 455 - Fall 2000
Fernando Quijano

1. Mr. Quijano outright threatened the students by saying he would give us an outrageous assignment just to make us pay for a student's opinion on the class. A wider range of cultures needs to be shared in the class and not just Colombian.
2. Fernando is a good guy. He get sidetracked and sometimes teaches irrelevant information. He is good at explaining international business by using economics. I don't like instructors that are habitually late for class. Fernando is usually late but doesn't keep us overtime.

2. The course is very interesting because he tells his own life experiences to the class.
2. I thought that this course was very interesting and will be very beneficial to me in the future. This was the best class I have taken in a long time!
2. I learned a lot about the cultures of other countries and how different they are from the U.S. Mr. Quijano taught us more than was in the book, he also gave us real world knowledge about the subjects.
2. I enjoyed this semester of International Business. I thought it was an interesting course and it was taught very well by Fernando. He knows a lot about other countries and it was interesting to hear about other cultures. I have enjoyed taking Micro, Macro, and International Business from Fernando. I think he is a great and interesting and fun instructor.
2. I thought that Fernando made the class interesting and informational.
